IN MEMORY OF CHAR FROST

As many of you already know, my beloved wife, Char, passed away on November 7th while returning from heart surgery in Cleveland, Ohio. She was very happy to be going home.

Char and I decided to move from Chicago to Southern Maryland in 1994. We had lived in other states during our years together but were looking for a place we could finally call home. The beauty of Chesapeake Bay and the sailing opportunities it offers, along with good friends in the area, lured us to Solomons. We did indeed find all that we had hoped for, and more. In addition to the beauty the bay offers, we found a warm welcome from the members of SMSA. As you opened your hearts to us, we found many new friends in this club.

Char loved to participate in SMSA activities, racing our boat, "Star Gazer," with a crew of good friends, and on "Fubar" in the Women's Series with good friend Maggie Weir. She served on the Board of Governors for two years as the membership governor and handled all the organization and computer work for me as the "assistant" race governor. She also served on the Screw Pile Lighthouse Regatta Race Committee for many years. Char was very organized, liked taking care of the detail work, and preferred working behind the scenes. She loved the Bay and recently became treasurer of the So. Calvert Land Trust.

Although she enjoyed many activities, such as sailing and snow skiing, Char found that flower gardening with her friend, Nancie, was the activity she most enjoyed. Throughout the spring, summer, and fall, beautiful flowers appear in our yard—just as she planned. Char made her garden, as friend Betty Jo described it, our "little piece of Heaven." You may have noticed some of her work as you sailed (or motored) past our home on Mill Creek.

During recent months, Char approached her surgery with a brave spirit. Although there were serious complications during surgery, she pulled through and was on the road to recovery. Her sisters and I were bringing her home. On Sunday morning, just before we started the last part of our journey, she collapsed in the motel room and died soon after at the local hospital in Everett, Pennsylvania.

I can't begin to tell you how hard it is to lose my wonderful wife of 32 years. Many of you came to the clubhouse to express your sympathy and concern for Char's family and me. Many of you have called and sent cards. The love and support of our good friends in SMSA is a tremendous help during this terrible time. Thanks to you all.

COMMODORE

Happy Holidays! By the time you read this we should be in full holiday swing. I would like to encourage everyone to stop by the Christmas Gathering on December 11th and share some holiday cheer with your sailing friends. We have a great view of the SIYC Light Parade from the clubhouse and we'll have hot beverages on hand to help keep you warm.

As we move into December, the Fall Frostbites are just ending and at least for the first two races, what great sailing days they were. Our post race activities at Bowen's included some additional time on the water, as the crew from Pursuit and American Flyer launched a small fleet of Victoria Class radio controlled boats for a sail in the harbor.

I hope that you got a chance to get out on the water this fall. For those of you that still have your boat wet and are hardy, I hope you can pick a nice day and go for a crisp, late season sail.

I want to take a minute to thank all of the people that have offered their help to our club over the past year, and those that have already signed up to help in 2005, whether it be race committee, leading a cruise, or serving on a committee. Our club needs volunteers like you and we are lucky to have many enthusiastic members.

Respectfully submitted,

RACE

By the time you read this, SMSA’s 2004 racing season will have just been completed. The season went by far too fast! But, the good news is that we’ll be back out there in Spring Frostbites in just three short months... just enough time to dust off the tactics and sail trim books, go to a few winter seminars, and if we’re lucky, participate in some of the really cool events like Key West Race Week. Otherwise, it’s time to rest up, get a few things done around the house, and recharge batteries for next year’s campaign.

As the newly elected and incoming Race Governor, I would like to take this first opportunity to thank my predecessor, Clarke McKinney, for the absolutely superb job he did over the last two years. Clarke’s a real pro, and I am humbled to follow in his footsteps. I will endeavor to do my part in shepherding our racing program along the same path as Clarke did to make SMSA a great venue for fun, competitive, and spirited racing.

As a sure sign that the racing season was drawing to a close, at the end of October, we pulled the Bay race marks, “D” and “E” out of the water for winter maintenance. It was quite an operation, and I want to acknowledge and thank Shawn Stanley, Pete LaRoche, and our diver, Steve Cassetta, for their expertise and muscle in helping to get the marks and anchors (250 lb engine blocks) out of the mud, towed in and up on dry land for the winter. [Clarke, you didn't tell me about that aspect of the job!]

Finally, I want to thank all the volunteers who gave their time over the past season to make our program successful... LG and the hundreds of Screwpile volunteers, the Wednesday, Thursday night and weekend race committees, scorers, handicappers, and all the others who helped make the season a great success! Thank you all!

Hope to see you all at the Annual Awards Banquet on January 8, 2005. Mark your calendars!

Jim Keen, SMSA Race Governor

WOMEN'S

The women's planning meeting for the 2005 program was well attended. Many ideas were exchanged and a working plan was established. We intend to have more small boat training and sailing. The details and calendar should be available for the next edition of The CLEW.

The Friday night seminars are being finalized. Look for details in the CLEW and on the web site.

Earlier sailing experience included dinghy racing and one-design Ranger 23 racing in San Francisco Bay. Most of their recent sailing has been focused on exploring the northern part of the Chesapeake Bay, and they enjoy going offshore at least once per season. They are also the founders of the annual Hallberg-Rassy Chesapeake Rendezvous. They look forward to exploring the mid and southern bay area in the company of SMSA friends in the future. Wayne and Sally have noted that we have "the finest looking burgee on the Bay!" Welcome Aboard.

Elleen Kane & Steve Donaldson are sponsored by Rod Schroeder. They live in St Leonard, MD and are currently without a boat (but Steve has his eye on an Ericson 34). Elleen began sailing in the mid 90's under the tutelage of a veteran sailor when she moved this area, and she is looking forward to becoming a more active and confident sailor. CRUISE

I want to thank the cruisers who participated in SMSA cruises this past season. Ron and I attended many of them, and they were all enjoyable. I especially want to thank the cruise leaders who, each and every one, did an excellent job.

Ron and I are, as I write this, in Savannah, Georgia, heading for Florida and, hopefully, the Bahamas. We have had adventures and misadventures on this trip, but overall it has been most enjoyable. We have, twice, seen Frank and Rita Gered who are also headed south.

We look forward to seeing all of the cruisers on the Bay during the 2005 season.

2005 CRUISE PLANNING MEETING SCHEDULED

The Cruise Planning Meeting will take place a week earlier than in the past. It will be at 10 AM on Saturday, January 22. The date coincides with the club's General Meeting and a clean-up day, so everyone has plenty of incentive to come to the clubhouse. I look forward to seeing you there.

WOMEN'S CRUISE OCTOBER 16-17, 2004

All week the sky was cloudy with periodic rain threatening potential attendance of the Women's Cruise. When Saturday arrived a front offered a challenging cruise, enough so that we elected to change our destination from Broome's Island to St. Leonard's Creek.

Three intrepid Admirals and their crew sailed the white-capped Patuxent River in winds of a steady 25 knots, entered and eventually anchored in St. Leonard's Creek.

Brigadoon (Janet Rupp, Judy Larsen, Sherma Munger) anchored on the leeward side of St. Leonard's Creek at 2:00 p.m. and the comment was made, "What do we do now?", so we broke out the food and started to eat and visit. A while later Rule of Thumb (Maggie Weir, Peggy and Beckah Stanley, Kim Blodnikar) attempted to raft to Brigadoon, but wouldn't you know, the wind would shift Brigadoon sending Rule of Thumb off to a second attempt to raft to Brigadoon this time successfully. We had more delicious food as well as much more to talk about.

The leeward side of St. Leonard's creek proved challenging to Spray (Marilyn Foley, Ann Funston and Judy Stewart) to successfully raft to Brigadoon's port side because the wind blew constantly at 25 knots and the raft continued to shift in the wind. Spray came close enough to toss her lines to the handlers on Brigadoon as the wind caught her bow making the raft-up difficult. Two of us on the bowlines and several of us on the stern on Brigadoon helped position Spray to the raft. So now we had the advantage of more delicious, delectable food and we ate all afternoon, laughed, and visited. Kim heard distant thunder, but it was so far away the rest of us didn't hear it and nothing was mentioned of it again. A severe thunderstorm with pea-sized hail went through Baltimore and on up to Chesapeake City, but we were in a safe harbor.

Powerboat wake rocked our raft occasionally and as the afternoon wore on the wind continued from the SW and we seemed to be nearing the opposite shore as we noticed the powerboats were now passing in front of us rather than in back of us. Brigadoon and Spray started their engines, Brigadoon weighed anchor and we headed back to the leeward shore with Maggie on the helm of Brigadoon. (If you ever want good, strong anchor haulers, just get Sherma Munger and Judy Larsen on board.) This time we dropped the hook and backed down on 150 feet of chain and did not drag again.

Soon we heard more thunder and this time it was closer. We decided to break the raft. Just as Rule of Thumb and Spray were about to leave the raft a microburst hit us. Spray anchored nearby. Rule of Thumb chose Rollins Cove to hunker down in the microburst. After the microburst and rain, a beautiful rainbow appeared with intense colors against the darkening sky. The rest of the night was calm and very cold.

Sunday morning as Brigadoon readied to depart she circled Spray close enough so a box of toothpicks and a bottle of mustard could be dropped into the extended crab net on Spray, forgotten items left behind on Brigadoon from the hasty departure of the previous evening. Assuring Brigadoon's crew that Spray's crew was ok, Brigadoon departed not yet knowing where Rule of Thumb had anchored. On VHF from Beckah (who has a very good, confident radio communication voice) we learned that Rule of Thumb had anchored in Rollins Cove and that Spray could not get the engine started because of a dead starting battery. The battery was new, the connections were clean, so what happened????!! Marilyn had to have Towboat/US come to her rescue.

The Women's Cruise had its challenges this year with cold temperatures, high winds, a microburst, some rain, and for Marilyn and her crew on Spray, a dead starting battery in the morning. The decision to take the cruise to St. Leonard's Creek was fortuitous. Broome's Island will wait for another year, hopefully earlier in October, 2005, when the temperatures are warmer.

To the Admirals who intended to go on the cruise (two boats and their crews), but for one or another reason did not, we hope to see you next year. We had so much fun on the Women's Cruise.

Thanks to all who braved the weather,
Janet Rupp, Cruise Leader

Halloween Cruise October 30 – 31, 2004

With early morning fog, cruise leader Ruste Nayle (Rod & Pat Schroeder) made a late morning departure and meandered up the river to drop the hook in Rollin's Cove in anticipation of some Halloween company. As the fog lifted to reveal a beautiful afternoon, we had time to hoist the pumpkin to mark our location and to put up a few festive decorations.

Soon after finishing those chores Lynn-Dee (Jerry & Marilyn Eastwood) arrived on station to begin our raft up. Next to arrive was Swan (Ken & Ellie Mowbray), and the rest of the goblins floated in soon after. By the time happy hour was in full swing the raft-up also included Walkabout (Dave & Lois Zonderman), Lickety Split (Donna Maneely & Les Griffith), Sea Mistress (Al Tittel & Marie Mullis), Illumination (Dave & Pat Marchant), and Sinbad (Robert & Lenore Blevins). Also joining us by dinghy for happy hour were Tom & Linda Conroy from the trawler Nomad, a neighbor of Ruste Nayle, Walkabout, and Illumination at Solomons Landing. As we enjoyed the usual good eats, special hot cider, and other beverages, John Bailey arrived to join the raft on his powerboat Purrrfect.

With no children in attendance this year, the prize patrol was left with costume judging for adults only. The easy winner in this category was Donna Maneely with her grinning pumpkin outfit. The grin was real – the pumpkin outfit was the costume. I'm sure that all the other boaters had costumes ready to enter, but when they saw Donna they just gave up. Look for her picture in next year's Yearbook.

As evening set in, we all enjoyed a gorgeous sunset off our stern, and a drawing was held with the following boats receiving a nice bottle of wine just for being lucky: Lickety Split, Sinbad, Purrrfect, and Walkabout. Sinbad and Purrrfect were unable to spend the night and departed for home later in the evening. With a favorable forecast and the still waters of Rollins Cove, the remaining seven boats stayed rafted up overnight under a bright nearly full waning moon.

The peaceful night gave way to morning activity as boaters arose, chatted over cups of coffee, and prepared for the journey home. As an eagle soared around the entrance to Rollins Cove, our Halloween fleet paraded down St Leonard Creek and waved to Nomad still at anchor outside the cove. Our parade was greeted at the creek entrance with a building wind to "reach" us toward our destinations around Solomons with time to spare to join the grandkids for some more Halloween trick-or-treat fun that night.
